3:20 Closing Remarks and Blessing for the Journey

* There is no food provided for lunch. You can gather to eat what you brought in the lower level (Fellowship Hall). Please use this time to meet members of the other groups. Also, there are materials you can pick up. Kathy & Dave Rennie are here selling Rosaries for China.

There are baskets in the back of the church. Please be praying about how you can support the continued work of the CCRO. If you can give an automatic donation each month, please find Sara and she can set you up as a Pledge Partner. All pledge partners receive all conferences recordings free of charge.

Please be mindful of your brothers and sisters during this time of the pandemic. Wear a facial covering and social distance.

Most Rev. Bishop Peter Leslie Smith is here from the Archdiocese of Portland, Oregon. He was appointed auxiliary bishop in 2014 by Pope Francis. He was elected to the International Service of Communion as part of CHARIS about which he will speak today. You can find out more by visiting these websites: charis.international/en/ or PentecostTodayUSA.org.

Alex (Alexandra) Schindler will lead worship today. She is a Catholic worship leader, liturgical musician, and singer-songwriter. Originally from Kentucky, and once an SPO missionary, she loves to share her gifts of music. She also works in parish evangelization and discipleship ministry. Visit her website at alexschindler.com.

Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ.

1 Cor 12:12

Jane Guenther prepared a recording explaining her role as an at-large member of the National Service of Communion (for CHARIS). She represents National Ministries, giving them a voice. All registered participants will be emailed the link to Jane's talk to view it and the link to review all of today's talks.

After we close today, you are welcome to stay for the Saturday vigil Mass at 4:30 here at St. Peter's.
